PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON-June 1-November 30-O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen
Saint Medard, patron of protection against Hurricanes, pray for us.
(Composed in 1957 by The Most Reverend Maurice Schexnayder, Second Bishop of Lafayette, following Hurricane Audrey)

Reflection on the Gospel-The crowd in the gospel crossed over the Sea of Galilee, opening themselves to the possibility of being filled forever by the One who would also entrust to them the “works of God” to feed others and give “life to the world.” This mission can take us into strange territory, where we risk letting go of the familiar and tasting the “bread” of others. Step by step, we turn from looking for the external “signs” toward seeking to become one with the very bread of life who fills us.

-Living Liturgy tm, Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time 2024
