Reflection on the Gospel-"Today we celebrate the saints who lived the truth of the Beatitudes that Jesus preached. In the midst of lives that were characterized by pain, suffering, and struggle, the saints drew close to Christ and experienced the peace, comfort, and satisfaction that is promised. We are invited to call for the intercession of the saints to pray for us as we too find the fullest sense of peace by uniting both our joys and our sufferings with those of Christ."

-Living Liturgy tm, All Saints 2026

Pro-Life Quote-

"Sisters and brothers, the mystery of the communion of saints, which we breathe in deeply today, reminds us of the final destiny of humanity: a great celebration in which we rejoice together in the love of God, present in all, recognizing and admiring the multifaceted beauty of faces, all different and all resembling the face of Christ." PRAYER FOR THE HURRICANE SEASON-June 1-Nov. 30
O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control; the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen. St. Medard, patron of protection against Hurricanes, pray for us. (Composed in 1957 by The Most Reverend Maurice Schexnayder, Second Bishop of Lafayette, following Hurricane Audrey)
