“We need to find God, and He cannot be found in noise and restlessness. God is the friend of silence. See how nature—trees, flowers, grass—grow in silence; see the stars, the moon and the sun, how they move in silence.
We need silence to be able to touch souls.”

Reflection on the Gospel-The readings today help us to reflect on the kind of welcome we provide to the twelve million undocumented immigrants who live and work in the United States and the even greater number of refugees worldwide. Those who are settled face similar challenges in welcoming outsiders as did the early church, which struggled to accept Gentiles into the faith community. Like the foreign magi, these newcomers bear gifts of immeasurable value for the whole community.

rather it is “timing” it waits on the right time to act,
