PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON-June 1-November 30-O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen

Reflection on the Gospel-Jesus couldn’t do any mighty deeds in his hometown because of his own people’s limited expectations.
Thinking they knew Jesus inside and out, they prevented God’s power from working through him. This is a version of “tall poppy syndrome,” where an individual leader is prevented from rising from within a group, which takes a “Who do they think they are?”
attitude, while an outside “expert” with the same ideas or gifts would be taken far more seriously. Perceptions and expectations, opposition and close-mindedness can squelch the flow of the Spirit. -Living Liturgy tm, Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“I often think that when we come to adore Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, we should obtain everything we want, if we would ask for it with a very lively faith and a very pure heart.”
Catechism on Prayer (M.)-Thoughts of the Curé D’Ars

“God will love you, of course, even though you do not love Him, but remember, if you give Him only half your heart,
He can make you only 50% happy.”
Venerable Fulton Sheen
