Pro-Life Quote-“Even with the overturning of Roe v. Wade in June 2022, a decision that returns the abortion issue to the electorate, many states continue not to recognize children in their mothers’ wombs as persons warranting protection under the law. Federal laws in our country fail to protect the lives of unborn children, and many political leaders at the state and federal level, work actively to increase access to abortion. Some falsely describe it as health care and even as a basic human right.” USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities, “Priorities at the Polls” Copyright © 2026, *United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, Washington, DC. “In all other religions, one has to be good to come to God—in Christianity one does not. Christianity might be described as a “come as you are” party. It bids us stop worrying about ourselves, stop concentrating on our faults and our failings, and thrust them upon the Saviour with a firm resolve of amendment.”

Venerable Fulton Sheen

“Our Lord is hidden in the Blessed Sacrament, waiting for us to come and visit Him....See how good He is!...If He had appeared before us now in all His glory, we should not have dared to approach Him; but He hides Himself like one in prison, saying:

“You do not see Me, but that does not matter;
 ask Me for all you want....”

Reflection on the Gospel-“As we return to Ordinary Time, the readings help us to reflect again on the beginnings of our journey of discipleship. The liturgical cycle is not a circle that just keeps us going around and around. Rather, each year, we approach the texts with freshness because both we and our world are not the same. Much as a couple, when celebrating their anniversary, retell the story of how they first met and fell in love, so the gospel invites us to reflect on how we first came to know Jesus.”
-Living Liturgy tm, Second Sunday in Ordinary Time 2026
