Fifteen Random Stewardship Ideas for the Month of July

Invite a single friend over for a meal; Turn off the TV, phone, and computer, and spend an hour devoted to someone you love; Attend an extra Mass on a weekday this month; Abstain from something you like—meat, a latte, a cold drink—on Fridays and save the money for a charity; Take your rosary with you for an early morning walk; Recycle more; Think of a charity which is amply blessed at Christmas. Remember it with a gift mid-year; Each day, say a prayer for one of the world’s trouble spots; Surprise an old friend with a phone call; Buy or pick a flower for someone without a “reason”; Take your family to a farmer’s market if in season; Stop for a moment during your busy day and enjoy an ice cream cone or other favorite treat; If you hear a great homily, tell the homilist; Splurge on some produce and buy enough to share with someone in need; On occasion, try turning your prayer before meals into a spontaneous prayer of thanks, using your own words.

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON-June 1-November 30-O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen
(Composed in 1957 by The Most Reverend Maurice Schexnayder, Second Bishop of Lafayette, following Hurricane Audrey)

Prayer to St. Joseph-O St. Joseph, whose protection is so great, so strong, so prompt before the throne of God, I place in you all my interests and desires. O St. Joseph, assist me by your powerful intercession and obtain for me all spiritual blessings through your foster Son, Jesus Christ Our Lord, so that, having engaged here below your heavenly power, I may offer you my thanksgiving and homage. O St. Joseph, I never weary contemplating you and Jesus asleep in your arms. I dare not approach while He reposes near your heart. Press Him in my name and kiss His fine head for me, & ask Him to return the kiss when I draw my dying breath. Amen

Reflection on the Gospel-Today’s gospel is a sort of “mission statement” and practical handbook for the early church. It says there is a plentiful harvest waiting to be reaped. Because it is Jesus who sends us, we can rely on his active protection. But there are “wolves” to be confronted on the way—personal, communal, and structural realities that will try to consume us. Finally, when the goal of our journey is the reign of God, money, possessions (or perhaps possessiveness), or concern with status can be hindering baggage. -Living Liturgy tm, Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time 2022
