Reflection on the Gospel-Today’s gospel warns that one who is blind to the goodness in others, & who speaks evil of them instead, reveals his or her own puny measure of openness to God’s goodness. Those who see only their neighbors’ tiny faults & rush to point those out expose the logjam that blocks their own hearts from receiving & giving God’s unfathomable love. A starting point toward transformation of the heart that results in kind works can be vigilance over what one says, curbing the impulse to speak ill of another.”
