Reflection on the Gospel-“Responding to the Pharisees’ trick question about divorce, Jesus quotes the creation stories of Genesis, changing the focus to God’s original intent for oneness & mutual correspondence. Just as later Christians would come to understand God as Three-in-One, so the unity of man & woman in marriage reflects this sacred unbreakable oneness. The reasons not all marriages reflect this sacred unity are many. When the ideal cannot be realized, it is equally important to remember Jesus’s insistence on compassion, forgiveness, and unconditional love.”
-Living Liturgy tm, Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time 2024

“With the Holy Spirit, we see everything in its true proportions; we see the greatness of the least actions done for God, and the greatness of the least faults.”

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON-June 1-November 30-
O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen St. Medard, patron of protection against Hurricanes, pray for us.
(Composed in 1957 by The Most Reverend Maurice Schexnayder, Second Bishop of Lafayette, following Hurricane Audrey)
