Prayer to St. Joseph-O St. Joseph, whose protection is so great, so strong, so prompt before the throne of God, I place in you all my interests and desires. O St. Joseph, assist me by your powerful intercession and obtain for me all spiritual blessings through your foster Son, Jesus Christ Our Lord, so that, having engaged here below your heavenly power, I may offer you my thanksgiving and homage. O St. Joseph, I never weary contemplating you and Jesus asleep in your arms. I dare not approach while He reposes near your heart. Press Him in my name and kiss His fine head for me, & ask Him to return the kiss when I draw my dying breath. Amen

Reflection on the Gospel-How does one extract hope from tragedy? How is one able to move on from trauma & find the strength & courage to keep living? The discovery of the empty tomb may have been more than simply shock & surprise, but after the crucifixion of Jesus, trauma on top of trauma. Yet, it is in the midst of great tragedy that God's power is revealed. The resurrection of Jesus not only represents hope in the midst of tragedy but also the transformation of physical & spiritual death to life.-Living Liturgy tm, Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

“Jesus Christ, after having given us all He could give, that is to say, the merit of His toils, His sufferings, and His bitter death; after having given us His Adorable Body and Blood to be the Food of our souls, willed also to give us the most precious thing He had left, which was His holy Mother.”

Pro-Life Quote-“Abortion is always wrong. This letter wishes to reflect particularly on the Church's teaching regarding abortion. In 1974, the Congregation of the doctrine of the Faith reflected that “in the course of history, the Fathers of the Church, her Pastors and her Doctors have taught the same doctrine,” namely that abortion is an “objectively grave fault.” In 1972, Pope Paul VI declared that “this doctrine has not changed and is unchangeable.””
