Reflection on the Gospel-"In today's gospel Jesus invites his disciples to take up the strenuous work of evangelization. The last part points to the rewarding aspects of this work. When proclaimers of the gospel see that their work can transform evil situations, the ensuing joy is indescribable. It is essential, however, that they don't focus on the visible results of their handiwork or take false pride in what they have accomplished.
 Their true joy comes from acknowledging the divine source of any success, which is the One who has called them to mission."

 of society." USCCB, "Prayer for Religious Liberty"

PRAYER FOR HURRICANE SEASON-June 1-November 30- O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen St. Medard, patron of protection against Hurricanes, pray for us.

 Second Bishop of Lafayette, following Hurricane Audrey)*
