"Let us not be afraid to be humble, small, helpless, to prove our love for God. The cup of water you give the sick, the way you lift a dying man, the way you feed a baby, the way you teach a dull child, the way you give medicine to someone suffering from leprosy, the joy with which you smile at your own home—all this is God's love in the world today."St Mother Teresa

Reflection on the Gospel-"In the parable that Jesus tells in today's gospel reading, there is a warning that refusal of the divine invitation has dire consequences. God does not inflict fiery punishment, but those who ignore God's invitation and do not allow themselves to be clothed in the garment of Jesus's ways of love, forgiveness, inclusivity, and nonviolent action for justice reject their place prepared for them at God's abundant table. Instead, they choose for themselves a place at the table of the putrid banquet of retaliatory violence and destruction."

-Living Liturgy tm, Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time 2026

Pro-Life Quote-

"An old Irish proverb says, 'It is in the shelter of each other that the people live.' Indeed, we are created to depend upon one another and walk together in suffering. But when family members or friends approach life's end, we may not know how best to 'shelter' them. Here are some concrete ways we can compassionately care for them: usccb.org/end-of-life-care." PRAYER FOR THE HURRICANE SEASON-June 1-Nov. 30
O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control; the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen. St. Medard, patron of protection against Hurricanes, pray for us. (Composed in 1957 by The Most Reverend Maurice Schexnayder, Second Bishop of Lafayette, following Hurricane Audrey)
