CENSUS-Our Parish Census is now underway! If you haven't already, please take a few moments this week to participate in our Parish Census. Many parishioners have received an email from St Marcellus OSV Hub with a secure link to review and update their household information.

If you have not received an email, we'll begin sharing a link for you to register next weekend. It's important to verify to avoid creating a duplicate record. Your participation helps us communicate more effectively, better serve our parish community, and keep our parish records accurate. Thank you for your response.

*The link will take you to your parishioner record to verify your household and parish information.

Complete even if the email mentions a parish other than the one you consider your primary. You'll be able to update that.

For more information, visit www.diola.org/census.

“It takes three to make love, not two: you, your spouse, and God. Without God people only succeed in bringing out the worst in one another. Lovers who have nothing else to do but love each other soon find there is nothing else. Without a central loyalty life is unfinished.” Blessed Fulton Sheen

Reflection on the Gospel-

“Jesus words in today’s gospel have sometimes been used to manipulate people to submit to abuse by those with more power. A closer look at the context of his saying reveals that he is speaking about a particular kind of suffering that his disciples must be willing to embrace: that which comes as a direct result of following his manner of life and mission. Suffering that comes from abuse and injustice is to be resisted and eradicated to the extent possible, as Jesus did throughout his ministry.”
-Living Liturgy tm, Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time 2026

Pro-Life Quote-If you or someone you know has had an abortion, be assured that it is never too late to seek God’s forgiveness in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. PRAYER FOR THE HURRICANE SEASON-June 1-Nov. 30
 O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control; the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen. St. Medard, patron of protection against Hurricanes, pray for us. (Composed in 1957 by The Most Reverend Maurice Schexnayder, Second Bishop of Lafayette, following Hurricane Audrey)
