Pro-Life Quote-“To celebrate the Gospel of life means to celebrate the God of life, the God who gives life...In every child which is born and in every person who lives or dies we see the image of God’s glory. We celebrate this glory in every human being, a sign of the living God, an icon of Jesus Christ.”

Reflection on the Gospel-Today’s gospel offers a paradox in an image: that of a grain of wheat that is planted and dies, so as to produce much fruit. Death, in this metaphor, is not the end of life but a transformation by which one is “made perfect,” that is, reaches the full flowering of God’s design. With Jesus, we are called to trust that God accompanies us and strengthens us through experiences of suffering and death, which bring the full flourishing of life. -Living Liturgy tm, Fifth Sunday of Lent 2024

“It is possible to love more than we know. A simple person in good faith may have a greater love of God than a theologian and, as a result, a keener understanding of the ways of God with the heart than psychologists have.”

Venerable Fulton Sheen

“Come, come, my dear, don’t be frightened at your burden; Our Lord will help you to carry it.”

Counsel (M.)-Thoughts of the Curé D’Ars
