Reflection on the Gospel-In today’s gospel, Jesus criticizes the way many Jewish leaders of his day clung to titles of honor and power, seized the limelight, and were attached to ostentatious religious garb. If we are inclined to dismiss these criticisms as rather quaint and irrelevant, we might consider the meaning of titles like Eminence, Excellency, or Monsignor (literally, “my Lord”) or expensive dwellings and insignia for some clergy—all of which are common aspects of Catholic life.

Pro-Life Quote-“Death is a decisive moment in the human person’s encounter with God the Savior. Helping the Christian to experience this moment with spiritual assistance is a supreme act of charity. It encompasses the patient with the solid support of human relationships to accompany them and open them to hope. Palliative care and hospice are precious and crucial instruments in the care of patients with serious and complex chronic or terminal illnesses, and they help provide comfort to both the patients and their families.”
